THE SANTA BARBARA COUNTY ARTS COMMISSION looks forward in your attendance at its Annual Arts Symposium Friday, April 16th from 8:30am to 3:00pm. The morning will be filled with several guest speakers, a progress report from the SB Arts Collaborative and announcement of the Direct-to-Arts Grant recipients for Literary, Performing, Visual Arts, and Film & New Media.

The Keynote address will include a presentation on:

- Creating sustainable cultural communities
- A report on the newly completed WAV (Working Artists Ventura) live-work space project

The afternoon is scheduled for a number of break out groups by topic. To assist us in coordinating the afternoon's programming please identify your top three areas of interest from the following list and send this completed form along with your registration form and check.

- _____ "Learning to Give" Teaching Philanthropy
- _____ Arts/Outreach Success Stories
- _____ Mentoring the next generation of artists, advocates and administrators
- _____ Leveraging Technology, Viral Promotion, and Social Networking
- _____ Creating new revenue streams and funding sources and models
- _____ Expanding opportunities for collaboration in programming and marketing
- _____ Update from regional foundations

We look forward to seeing you on April 16th, and welcome your participation in this vital arts and creative community dialogue. An draft agenda for the day will be available online April 6th.

An information table will be available if you would like to bring business cards, flyers or other materials to share. [Approximately 100 attendees are expected.]
